

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Health Sciences Library Association of New Jersey is celebrating its 29th Anniversary; and

WHEREAS, New Jersey's health sciences librarians and information specialists provide physicians, nurses, and other health-related practitioners with the vital, accurate, and current information they require in order to furnish the highest quality and cost-effective health care for all New Jerseyans; and

WHEREAS, the Health Sciences Library Association of New Jersey serves these librarians by acting as a cohesive force and a unified voice in providing education, resource sharing and networking;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DONALD T. DiFRANCESCO, Senate President, Acting Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby proclaim

MARCH 19 to MARCH 23, 2001

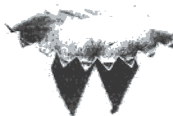

as

HEALTH SCIENCES LIBRARY WEEK

in New Jersey, and recognize and commend the members of this organization for the outstanding services they provide in helping deliver health care to the people of our state.

GIVEN, under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Jersey, this twenty-third day of February in the year of Our Lord two thousand one and of the Independence of the United States, the two hundred and twenty-fifth.

SENATE PRESIDENT,
ACTING GOVERNOR
